...RESPONDENTS

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed seeking a Writ of Mandamus to declare the action of the respondents 1 and 2 in calling the petitioner to the police station and making him to sit in the police station for days together as illegal and arbitrary.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that at the instance of one Mylaram Chinna Narsareddy, who is having an agricultural land adjacent to the land of the petitioner, the respondents are interfering with the personal life and liberty of the petitioner by calling him to the police station without any justification and making him to sit in the police station for days together.

Counter has been filed by the respondents stating that no complaint has been lodged against the petitioner as such calling the petitioner to the police station and harassing him does not arise.

The allegation of the petitioner that he was called to the police station at the instance of Mylaram Chinna Narsareddy on 10.08.2005 and was made to sit in the station for the whole day and was threatened with dire consequences is denied.

In view of the aforesaid denial of the allegations no direction can be issued in this writ petition.

The writ petition is accordingly dismissed with a liberty to the petitioner to take appropriate action against the respondents either by way of filing a private complaint or by way of making representations before the higher Officers and if there is any illegal interference or criminal action by Mylaram Chinna Narsareddy it is open for the petitioner to report the same to the police for taking appropriate action.
